

Viewing Your Community Through a Health Equity Lens

Dr. Melody Madlem & Dr. Jennifer Leimbek, Central Washington University Public Health

© 2009 Washington State Journal of Public Health Practice. All Rights Reserved.

Abstract: Health equity and social justice are fundamental to a healthy community. These concepts permeate much work in public health, yet few people truly grasp their meaning and skills needed to engage our communities in this work. The Goal of this training is to provide a baseline of understanding and competence in identifying the causes of health inequities as they relate to social justice and the social determinants of health.